

... is the defendant in the above cause and is the plaintiff in the suit at law now pending between the parties hereinabove named and is entitled to the relief and damages by the court and complainants have no claim nor title to or any right to recover the property sued for and described in the bill to follow viz:

"Being the northeast corner of the northeast quarter of section 14, township two (2) road four (4) west of the basic line, Foster District containing forty (40) acres and other land described as bounded on the north by the land of Parker, south by Hartman's line east by Phillips land and west by Cummings' line."

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the complainant's bill be dismissed and complainants and Bill Cummings their attorneys attorney still pay all the costs of the cause for which execution will issue.

By consent of the parties the written opinion of the Chancellor to make a part of the record in the cause.
